SIDES & DESSERTS

Greene King IPA (3.6% ABV)

Award-winning Greene King IPA is a great-tasting beer, loved by drinkers across the world. In fact, Greene King IPA is currently Britain's favourite cask ale, so you're in good company and taste.

This hoppy, refreshing beer is brewed in the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds, in the heart of Suffolk, where brewing has been an important part of the town's history even as far back as 1086 when brewing in the town was recorded in the Domesday Book.

Greene King IPA (3.6% ABV) is a great tasting beer, characterised by its fresh, hoppy taste and clean, bitter finish. Despite the simplicity of the ingredients - barley, water, yeast and hops - it's in the creation of the recipe that the skill of the master brewer lies. And here's the real secret of our success. We can turn those basic ingredients into some of the best cask ales available today - each with its own individual flavour, aroma, colour and characteristics. This award-winning beer's hoppy taste and aroma comes from two varieties of English hops, which are combined with pale and crystal malts.

Greene King IPA is a great beer to enjoy particularly with certain foods such as curry, Mexican and other spicy food. But it's equally enjoyable on its own.

FULLERS London Pride 4.1% ABV

London's only remaining traditional family brewer.

Fuller's London Pride is the UK's leading premium ale.

Known and loved for its distinctive, rounded flavour, London Pride is the award-winning beer for which Fuller's is most famous. In recent years its popularity has grown to the extent that it is now Britain's leading premium ale: a welcome fixture in many pubs and off licences around the country, and now winning new friends abroad.

To the beer aficionado looking for the classic English pint, we say this: Whatever you do, take Pride.

Wells Bombardier Bitter (4.3% ABV)

Wells Bombardier English Premium Bitter from Wells and Young's Brewing Company, has become synonymous with St. George's Day and all that is English, throughout the length and breadth of the country. It is known as the 'Drink of England.'

'A burnished copper colour, it has a rich, tempting aroma of peppery hops and raisins, while the palate is dominated by more dark fruit, juicy malt and tangy hops.'
